To Whom It May Concern

The Syriac Orthodox Patriarchate of Antioch certifies that, according to the Constitution of the Syriac Orthodox Church of Antioch and to the Bylaws of the Archdiocese of Central America, all Syriac Orthodox parishes and clergy in Colombia are an integral part of the Archdiocese of Central America. Consequently, they are under the jurisdiction of the Syriac Orthodox Archbishop of Central America and so should any community or clergy in order to be considered as part of the Syriac Orthodox Church of Antioch.

Moreover, the Patriarchate does not engage in any dialogue with ecclesiastical bodies in Colombia except through the Archdiocese of Central America presided by the Archbishop of Central America.

In testimony of the above, this certificate was issued.
